

Petrolia Community Theatre Newsletter for July 2010

Your PCT Board members met recently and the following is a summary of events that may be of interest to you:

Victorian Workshop: We are very fortunate to have enlisted the aid of Erika Downie, an expert in “acting Victorian”.....she has consented to conduct a free workshop for our PCT members, including the cast of A Christmas Carol and A Victorian Wedding.

Date: July 27th at 7 p.m.

Place: 4416 Petrolia Line, Petrolia

Requirements: Over the age of 14 yrs please.

Your Board needs your help:

- Looking for a Director and Producer for “Shoot-Out at the Sacred Heart Saloon” to be presented in April 2011.
- We have cast “A Christmas Carol”, but are still looking for crew members: Props, Wardrobe, Publicity, Set Décor and Painting, Book holder and many, many more positions. Call Barbara or Wendy (see below)
- Looking for cast and back stage crew for a Murder Mystery to be held on August 28th in Brigden. Contact Bonnie Harris

(see below) if you are interested in this event. Great opportunity to try a small project.

- Victorian Wedding to be held at The Petrolia Discovery on September 18th: we are looking for help with hair, make-up, dressers, and ushers.

•Coming very soon: a play reading party for the last in Doug Wright's pantomime trilogy "The Revenge of the Three Little Pigs".

- If you are interested in helping with a favorite play of yours, or if you have a suggestion for our Play Reading Committee, contact Bonnie (see below).
- Next PCT Board meeting will be held August 18th. Anyone interested please contact Barbara (see below) for details, we are still looking for Board members.
