

PCT Newsletter of February 2012

Announcement: After much deliberation the PCT Board announces that there will not be a Spring Show for 2012. As with any decision, the reasons are many and complex. We thank everyone who worked so hard to review the available options. Read on for other exciting projects...come join us!

Murder Mystery Evening in April.

Looking for writer, director, stage manager, crew, cast, etc.

This is a great project for both experienced and novice cast and crew. The time commitment is much less than a full play. No previous experience necessary for either cast or crew. For actors, this will be a very different experience as part of the Murder Mystery is scripted, a lot is improvisational. Roughly 4 or 5 rehearsals will be scheduled. Looking for adult cast roles and crew positions. Interested? Call Warren at 519-882-1220.

Play Reading Party: Patci Stephens is looking at directing "Scrooge the Musical" for December 2013. She is holding a play-reading party. This event is an opportunity for everyone to read the play and hear the various roles, as well as to experience the music. A very social occasion and a great chance to connect with other PCT members. When you arrive please let Patci know if you are interested in reading, or just came to listen. Come and join us on Saturday, March 17th. Arrival time 6.30 p.m. We will start the play reading promptly at 7 p.m. Bring your own drinks and nibblies to share. Place: 6343 Weidman Line, Inwood

Call Barbara at 519-844-2495 for more information. For a list of characters and ideal vocal ranges please see:

Training: Your PCT Board is looking at the possibility of offering its members theatre training programs....here is where we need your help. Please tell us what training you would like. So often we hear that our membership is reluctant to help out because they feel “untrained” for a specific position. Here is your opportunity to learn new skills or build on your previous experiences. Please contact Bert at bertderoo@mdirect.net

Reminder.....WODL: Just a reminder of the week long festival being held in Sarnia. Each night is a performance from a regional community theatre group. A great opportunity to see what other theatre groups have created. Go and be inspired!
