Revenge of the Three Little Pigs

The Startling Conclusion of the Cinderella Trilogy

by Doug Wright

PCT is looking for a Director/Producer team to put on this comedy, which is written in the British pantomime tradition, so popular over the holiday season. This production features some beloved story characters with a hilarious blend of kid and adult humour.

Scripts are available digitally for potential directors and producers. The script calls for about 10 main characters with some flexibility as to gender, and a host of secondary characters. This production has a few musical and dance numbers that befits this style of comedy.

Rehearsal space is available in Petrolia at PCT's own rehearsal hall on Center Street.

Show dates: Early December 2011 at Victoria Hall, Victoria Playhouse Petrolia.

Look soon for a newsletter for other cast and crew roles as well as audition information.
